 - i. screen or wi-fi- coffee, water, snack nothing big
- b. District 4 Meetings – Sept 21, 2019 and April 11, 2020, 12:00pm@ Post 111
- c. Survey (attached) was approved to be sent to the membership via copies, website and email.

2. Commander

- a. Flags retirement program will be held in August during the Post meeting at 5pm. Boys Scouts will be invited to participate. Jack McKinnon asked about the disposition of the excess flags. Rick Morge will get with Jack to learn the particulars of sending them to Goldfinch Funeral home to have them burned. Jack has always done this in the past. Rick Morge and Dave Goodman will develop a map and chart the location of the flags. We have one last mailbox, waiting on the decal that Dave Berry has ordered, to be placed possibly back at Conway National Bank. Jack McKinnon will check with the bank. Connie Arturet will check with the Post Office for additional mailboxes. Rick Morge requested purchasing conduit poles for the additional flags. Motion made and passed. Don Deane suggested we label flags with our name.
- b. July Meeting – Picnic open to all members and their families. Free to membership.
- c. Property Sale was sold for about $3900.00 in the Post account. Casey suggest that we use that money to pay down our mortgage. Ed Sautier suggested that we put $3000.00 on the mortgage. Casey Koerner suggested that we set a limit to our checking account, $5,500.00 and anything we gain above that be submitted to the mortgage. He brought this up some months ago. The discussion was postponed due to the absence of the Finance Officer.

- d. Canteen Manager stated that he is burned out and that he needs to back off on Bingo and Thursday night meals. He said that he is not getting any help. Connie Arturet stated that she has recruited Wayne Berry who is willing to step in with the canteen and cooking. He has experience in this area. George Swift suggested that we pay the Canteen Manager a percentage of the canteen income. Casey Koerner said that payment is not necessary at this time. He also stated that we need to get the kitchen up to state standards to open to the public and possibly hire someone to run it. Ed Sautier said that those individuals that are listed on the "Beer and Wine" license need a background check.
 - e. Bingo is needing volunteers.
 - f. Volunteers are needed for events/fundraisers. Phone tree and emails will go out asking for help with Riverfest.
 - g. Ed Sautier asked about adding another A/C unit in the main hall. Casey Koerner said that we have a new unit in the back room. Don Deane will investigate it and install.
3. Bass Pro Shops said that we can use their store front to sell hot dogs/hamburgers at no charge for a fund raiser.
 4. Veterans Day Banquet will be chaired by George Swift. Committee members consist of Casey Koerner, Don Deane and Bruce Donegan.

Meeting adjourned: 10:18 am

Next Meeting Aug 1, 2019 9:00am

Respectfully Submitted:
